At the University of North Texas, our commitment to offering an affordable education doesn’t end with our amazing value. Although we work hard to keep our quality high and our cost low, we know that many students need help financing their education.

UNT annually awards more than $350 million in financial aid, including more than $45 million in scholarships. You might be surprised to find out how much financial aid you can receive — regardless of your family’s income level — but you won’t know what you’re eligible for unless you apply!

This guide is designed to help you discover the financial resources available to you, but it’s only the first step. Our Student Financial Aid and Scholarships office is here to help you. Come see us on the first and second floors of the Eagle Student Services Center (ESSC), visit financialaid.unt.edu for more information, or call us at 940-565-2302.

Getting started

The Free Application for Federal Student Aid, or FAFSA, is an application that helps colleges and universities determine your eligibility for financial aid. In fact, nearly all students who complete the FAFSA receive some type of financial assistance.

Financial aid awards are funded and regulated by federal and state government, so applying for and receiving financial aid is a process. The information and advice in this publication will help you get started. By planning ahead, applying early and following the necessary steps, you will be able to meet your goal.

TIPS FOR COMPLETING THE FAFSA

BEFORE YOU APPLY...

STEP 1
Check Eligibility. Make sure you’re eligible to apply. Look for eligibility requirements in this publication under “Am I eligible to apply for financial aid?”

STEP 2
Apply Early. The FAFSA and renewal FAFSA are available each October at fafsa.gov. Apply early in order to get first consideration for awards!

STEP 3
Create your Federal Student Aid ID (FSA ID). This is required for filing and signing necessary documents ahead of time at fsaid.ed.gov.

STEP 4
Gather all required documents and information. This includes your completed federal income tax return for the current or prior tax year, Social Security number and bank statements.

WHEN FILING THE FAFSA...

STEP 1
Provide your correct Social Security number.

STEP 2
Complete the income and asset information. Do not leave it blank. For questions regarding income, if the answer is zero or if the question does not apply to you, enter 0.

STEP 3
Use the IRS Data Retrieval Tool. If you and/or your parents already filed a federal tax return with the IRS, you may be eligible to use the IRS Data Retrieval Tool. This is the best and easiest way to provide accurate tax information. With just a few simple steps, you and/or your parents can transfer information directly into your FAFSA.

STEP 4
List our Title IV Federal School Code: 003594. Keep copies of all documents and correspondence.

AFTER YOU HAVE APPLIED...

STEP 1
Check your Student Aid Report (SAR) for accuracy. You will receive a copy of your SAR via email or mail about a week after the FAFSA has been filed. The SAR summarizes information included on the FAFSA. The SAR also will indicate Pell Grant eligibility, if any, and the Expected Family Contribution (EFC).

STEP 2
Visit my.unt.edu for updates from the Student Financial Aid and Scholarships office. Select the aid year you want to review. The amount of your financial aid award will be posted on myUNT, where you can accept, decline or reduce each award.
To apply for federal financial aid (grants, work-study, loans), you must:

- Be a U.S. citizen or eligible noncitizen*
- Have a valid Social Security number
- Have a high school diploma or GED (general equivalency diploma)
- Be accepted for admission by the university and enrolled in an eligible degree or certification program
- Not be in default on any Title IV loan (Federal Perkins Loan or Federal Stafford Loan) or owe a refund on educational funds received at any institution
- Be registered with the Selective Service, if required
- Enroll in and maintain at least a half-time class load at UNT and demonstrate Satisfactory Academic Progress as defined by Student Financial Aid and Scholarships

*Non-documented students may qualify for state assistance under Texas Senate Bill 1528. Students should visit financialaid.unt.edu or studentaid.gov for more information.

To receive first consideration for awards, submit your FAFSA by the following priority dates:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Fall/Spring:</th>
<th>March 15</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Spring only:</td>
<td>Aug. 15</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Summer:</td>
<td>Feb. 15*</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

If you miss the priority dates listed above, you can still submit your application. Student Financial Aid and Scholarships will continue to process applications received after these dates.

Take note: You must apply for financial aid each year. Changes in federal regulations, educational costs and your family circumstances make it necessary to evaluate your eligibility annually. To continue your eligibility, you must also meet Satisfactory Academic Progress guidelines. You may complete a renewal FAFSA on the web as early as Oct. 1 of each year at fafsa.gov.

*Summer aid applicants: In addition to the FAFSA, you will be required to complete the Summer Application for Financial Aid, which will be available in early spring at my.unt.edu. Visit the Student Financial Aid and Scholarships website at financialaid.unt.edu.

WHEN I COMPLETE THE FAFSA, WILL I BE APPLYING FOR SCHOLARSHIPS?

No. Applying for scholarships is separate. However, many scholarships could require you to complete the FAFSA. For specific information about scholarships, you should visit the Student Financial Aid and Scholarships website at scholarships.unt.edu as well as the academic department that corresponds to your major.

WHAT TYPES OF FINANCIAL AID ARE AVAILABLE?

Grants: A grant is a type of need-based aid that does not have to be repaid. Your financial need is determined by the FAFSA. Many federal, state and institutional grants are available at UNT.

Work-study: Work-study jobs are partially funded by the state or federal government. Your eligibility for the work-study program is determined by financial need. Work-study students work from 10 to 20 hours per week on campus and receive an hourly wage. A typical award is up to $5,000 per nine-month academic period. Students who are not eligible for work-study may seek employment on campus by visiting the Career Center’s website at careercenter.unt.edu.

Loans: Loans are available at low interest rates to students and parents of dependent students and must be repaid after you graduate or drop below half-time status. Some loans are based on financial need and others are available regardless of your financial circumstances. Several loan programs are available at UNT.

For specific information about the different types of grants, work-study, loans and other financial aid available, visit financialaid.unt.edu.

TUITION RATE PLANS AND FINANCIAL AID ELIGIBILITY

For new students, UNT offers two tuition plan choices to give you flexibility and convenience: the Eagle Express plan and the Traditional plan. You are eligible to receive financial aid and/or scholarships no matter which tuition plan you choose. For help determining which plan is right for you, visit eagleexpress.unt.edu.

EXAMPLE OF FINANCIAL NEED DETERMINATION:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Cost of Attendance (COA)</th>
<th>Expected Family Contribution (EFC)</th>
<th>Financial Need</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>tuition books room/board personal travel</td>
<td>FAFSA data</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

- Example:
  - COA: $23,780
  - EFC: $5,000
  - Financial Need: $18,780

Financial need is the difference between the Cost of Attendance (COA) and the Expected Family Contribution (EFC). Each university is required to determine its own COA.

HOW IS FINANCIAL NEED DETERMINED?

The U.S. Department of Education determines your Expected Family Contribution (EFC) based on information you provide on the FAFSA. Parent and student resources are considered the first source of funds to finance an education. Financial aid is intended to supplement, not replace, family resources. The primary responsibility of funding rests with families and students. Parents' income is not included in the EFC for an independent student.

SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES

Representatives in the Student Financial Aid and Scholarships office can use professional judgment and take special circumstances into consideration as decisions are being made about financial aid award packages. Examples of situations that are considered to be “special circumstances” include:

- Loss or reduction of employment, wages or unemployment compensation
- Loss of untaxed income or benefits, such as Social Security or child support
- Separation or divorce
- Loss of a parent or spouse
- Unusually high medical expenses

Contact Student Financial Aid and Scholarships for more information on special circumstances.

WHEN WILL I KNOW?

Student Financial Aid and Scholarships will receive your FAFSA data electronically shortly after you have completed your FAFSA and you will receive a Student Aid Report (SAR). If you feel corrections are necessary, contact Student Financial Aid and Scholarships. If your SAR is accurate, keep it for your records.

Student Financial Aid and Scholarships will notify you at my.unt.edu with additional instructions. It is important that you respond to all requests for additional information in a timely manner. Your file must be complete and you must be admitted to UNT before processing of aid can continue. Again, applying for and receiving financial aid is a process.
