Spring Term Information

When withdrawing from UNT, financial aid recipients must notify our office of their withdrawal by submitting this online Financial Aid Withdrawal form. Failure to complete this form accurately and completely could directly affect your financial aid eligibility.

Completion of this form does not officially withdraw you from classes. If you have not done so already, you must contact the Dean of Students office to finalize your withdrawal.

It is possible you will owe a repayment of unearned financial aid funds to the university if you withdraw. Federal regulations require post-secondary institutions to calculate the amount of TITLE IV (Federal) aid that might be permitted to remain applied to your student account. The calculation is based on the following:

- Your date of your withdrawal
- The total amount of Federal Title IV aid eligibility
- Tuition and Fee charges
- Room and Board charges, if applicable
- Class attendance

After UNT personnel applies the federally mandated calculation, any unearned Federal Title IV funds (aid) will be returned to the programs from which the money was paid to you (or your parent).

Visit Return of Title IV Funds for an example of the federally mandated calculation that will be applied should you withdraw from UNT.
